

Laboratory Safety Awareness

- review SOP & SDS
- avoid working alone
- update emergency contact
- take safety training
- maintain emergency equipment
- limit paper & combustible materials
- declutter & dispose
- use lab attire & PPE
- no food or drink
- assess risk of new experiment
- use fume hood & BSC
- use protective eye wear
- manage hazardous waste
- follow visiting minors policy
- secure needles & sharps
- register work with hazards

Scan to learn how to keep lab work safe

BARNARD

Community Accountability, Response, and Emergency Services | CARES

CARES Line (Non-Emergency): 212-854-3362

Community Safety (Emergency): 212-854-6666

Nondiscrimination & Title IX: 212-854-0037